About The Blue Water Hotel

Situated only 27 km from the island's capital of Colombo, in the coastal town of Wadduwa and with easy access to the airport. The main theme of the hotel is its artistic use of water which gives Blue Water its name. Cascading ponds, fountains and waterways dot the surroundings whilst the entrance corridor is flanked by water on either side.

The water within the building flows into the resort's giant swimming-pool that winds through the main lobby area and is estimated to be one of the largest in Asia. This magnificent pool holds around five times the amount usually found in a resort pool. Excellent buffet and a la carte cuisine. International clientele.
